

Electoral enrolment

for federal, state and local government elections in Queensland

Use this form to • enrol to vote or • change your address or • change your name on the electoral roll

IMPORTANT — Please read the information on this page before you start to fill in the form

Enrolment and voting

Why should you enrol and vote?

All eligible people are required to enrol and vote in federal, state and local government elections. You may be fined if you don't.

When should you enrol?

If you are not on the roll when an election is called, you may not have time to enrol to vote. ENROL NOW.

Are you eligible?

You are eligible to enrol and vote if you:

- are an Australian citizen, or a British subject who was enrolled on 25 January 1984 (and – for Queensland elections only – if you were eligible to be on the state electoral roll on 31 December 1991); and
- are 18 years or older; and
- have lived at your address for at least one month.

You may enrol when you are 17, but you cannot vote until you are 18.

Special enrolment

Contact the Australian Electoral Commission for more information and special application forms if you:

- have no fixed address
- are temporarily overseas
- are in prison
- are physically incapable of signing your name
- are working in Antarctica
- cannot attend a polling place on polling day
- believe that having your address shown on a publicly available roll may endanger your safety or that of your family.

What happens when you return your form?

Your application is checked and your name and address is placed on the electoral roll for federal, state and local government elections if you are eligible.

If you have not received written confirmation of your enrolment within 3 weeks of applying, please call the Australian Electoral Commission on 13 23 26.

Authorisation to collect the information on this form is contained in the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 and the Queensland Electoral Act 1992.
